SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Life began in '39 and in '43 it has only a small start, as we, the Seniors of Pattonville High School, leave our studies and prepare for our uncertain future.

Yes, it was in September, 1939, that forty-three green Freshmen, wonderfully unaware of coming events, but keenly desirous of delving into the mysteries of High School life, trudged up the stairs of the school "high on a hilltop." Included in that ready and eager group were Jewel McCoy, Wayne Jeffrey, Buddy Burch, and Sandra Barreca--the only ones who had started their school work at Pattonville Grade School and intended to finish it in the high school. During the year, four of the pupils came to the conclusion that graduating four years hence wasn't worth the trials and tribulations attributed to Algebra, Science, Citizenship and English I. However, one more student joined the group, making a total of forty who finished the year and looking forward to their next year as "Wise Owls."

And, when the next year did come, it found the Sophomore class with forty-eight pupils. Although seventeen of us had come from another school, quite a few dropped out. What a happy night it was for us when Shirley Jane Brewster and Wayne Jeffrey, the Sophomore candidates, were crowned King and Queen of the school, amid music, confetti, and loud exclamations proclaiming the Sophomores to be the supreme class of Pattonville High School! Mr. Shawver, our Sponsor, helped us in carrying out successful plans for a Valentines party.

Our Junior year found forty-two pupils looking anxiously towards the Prom, the Junior dance and, in the now not-too-far-off future, the receiving of those immortal "sheepskins." During the year, only two of our students dropped. Miss Lucas was our helpful director, and under her guidance we gave the Seniors of '42 a very successful Prom, here at the school. Our guest of honor was Private D. G. Tarbet, our former music teacher.

And so we entered our Senior year. Thirty-five Seniors, planned happy days---thirty-five Seniors, until three dropped out--Marjorie Mandeville, due to a long siege of illness, Calvin Peachee, who became one of Uncle Sam's sailors and Harold Bryant, who found a job waiting for him in California. That left us with thirty-two pupils to complete work on the annual and to plan and carry out with great success, the "Sadie Hawkin's Dance." Under the helpful guidance of Miss Hazel Newcomer we made our plans for that coming, big event which drew closer each hour. Our class officers, Anna Mae Scheffing, President; Buddy Burch, Vice-President; Wayne Jeffrey, Secretary; and Barney Lepsky, Treasurer, proved to be competent and reliable.

Four years of hard, toilsome, but very wonderful, joyous days have passed---days that shall never be forgotten in the memories of thirty-two Seniors. We won't forget, we couldn't, the joys unbounded which we found "High on a hilltop, 'Neath skies of blue."

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen. This is Station P.H.S. broadcasting tonight from Pattonville, Missouri at the reunion banquet of the graduates of Pattonville ten years previous, in 1943; so let's get along with our program.

We do not have time for each to speak individually, so I will just state each one's present occupation.

Buddy Burch, that much demanded orchestra leader of the year who is even more famous than Eddie Duchin who was his ideal in '42, is here. The name Buddy has stayed with him and now no one knows that such a person as Leslie Alexander Burch has existed.

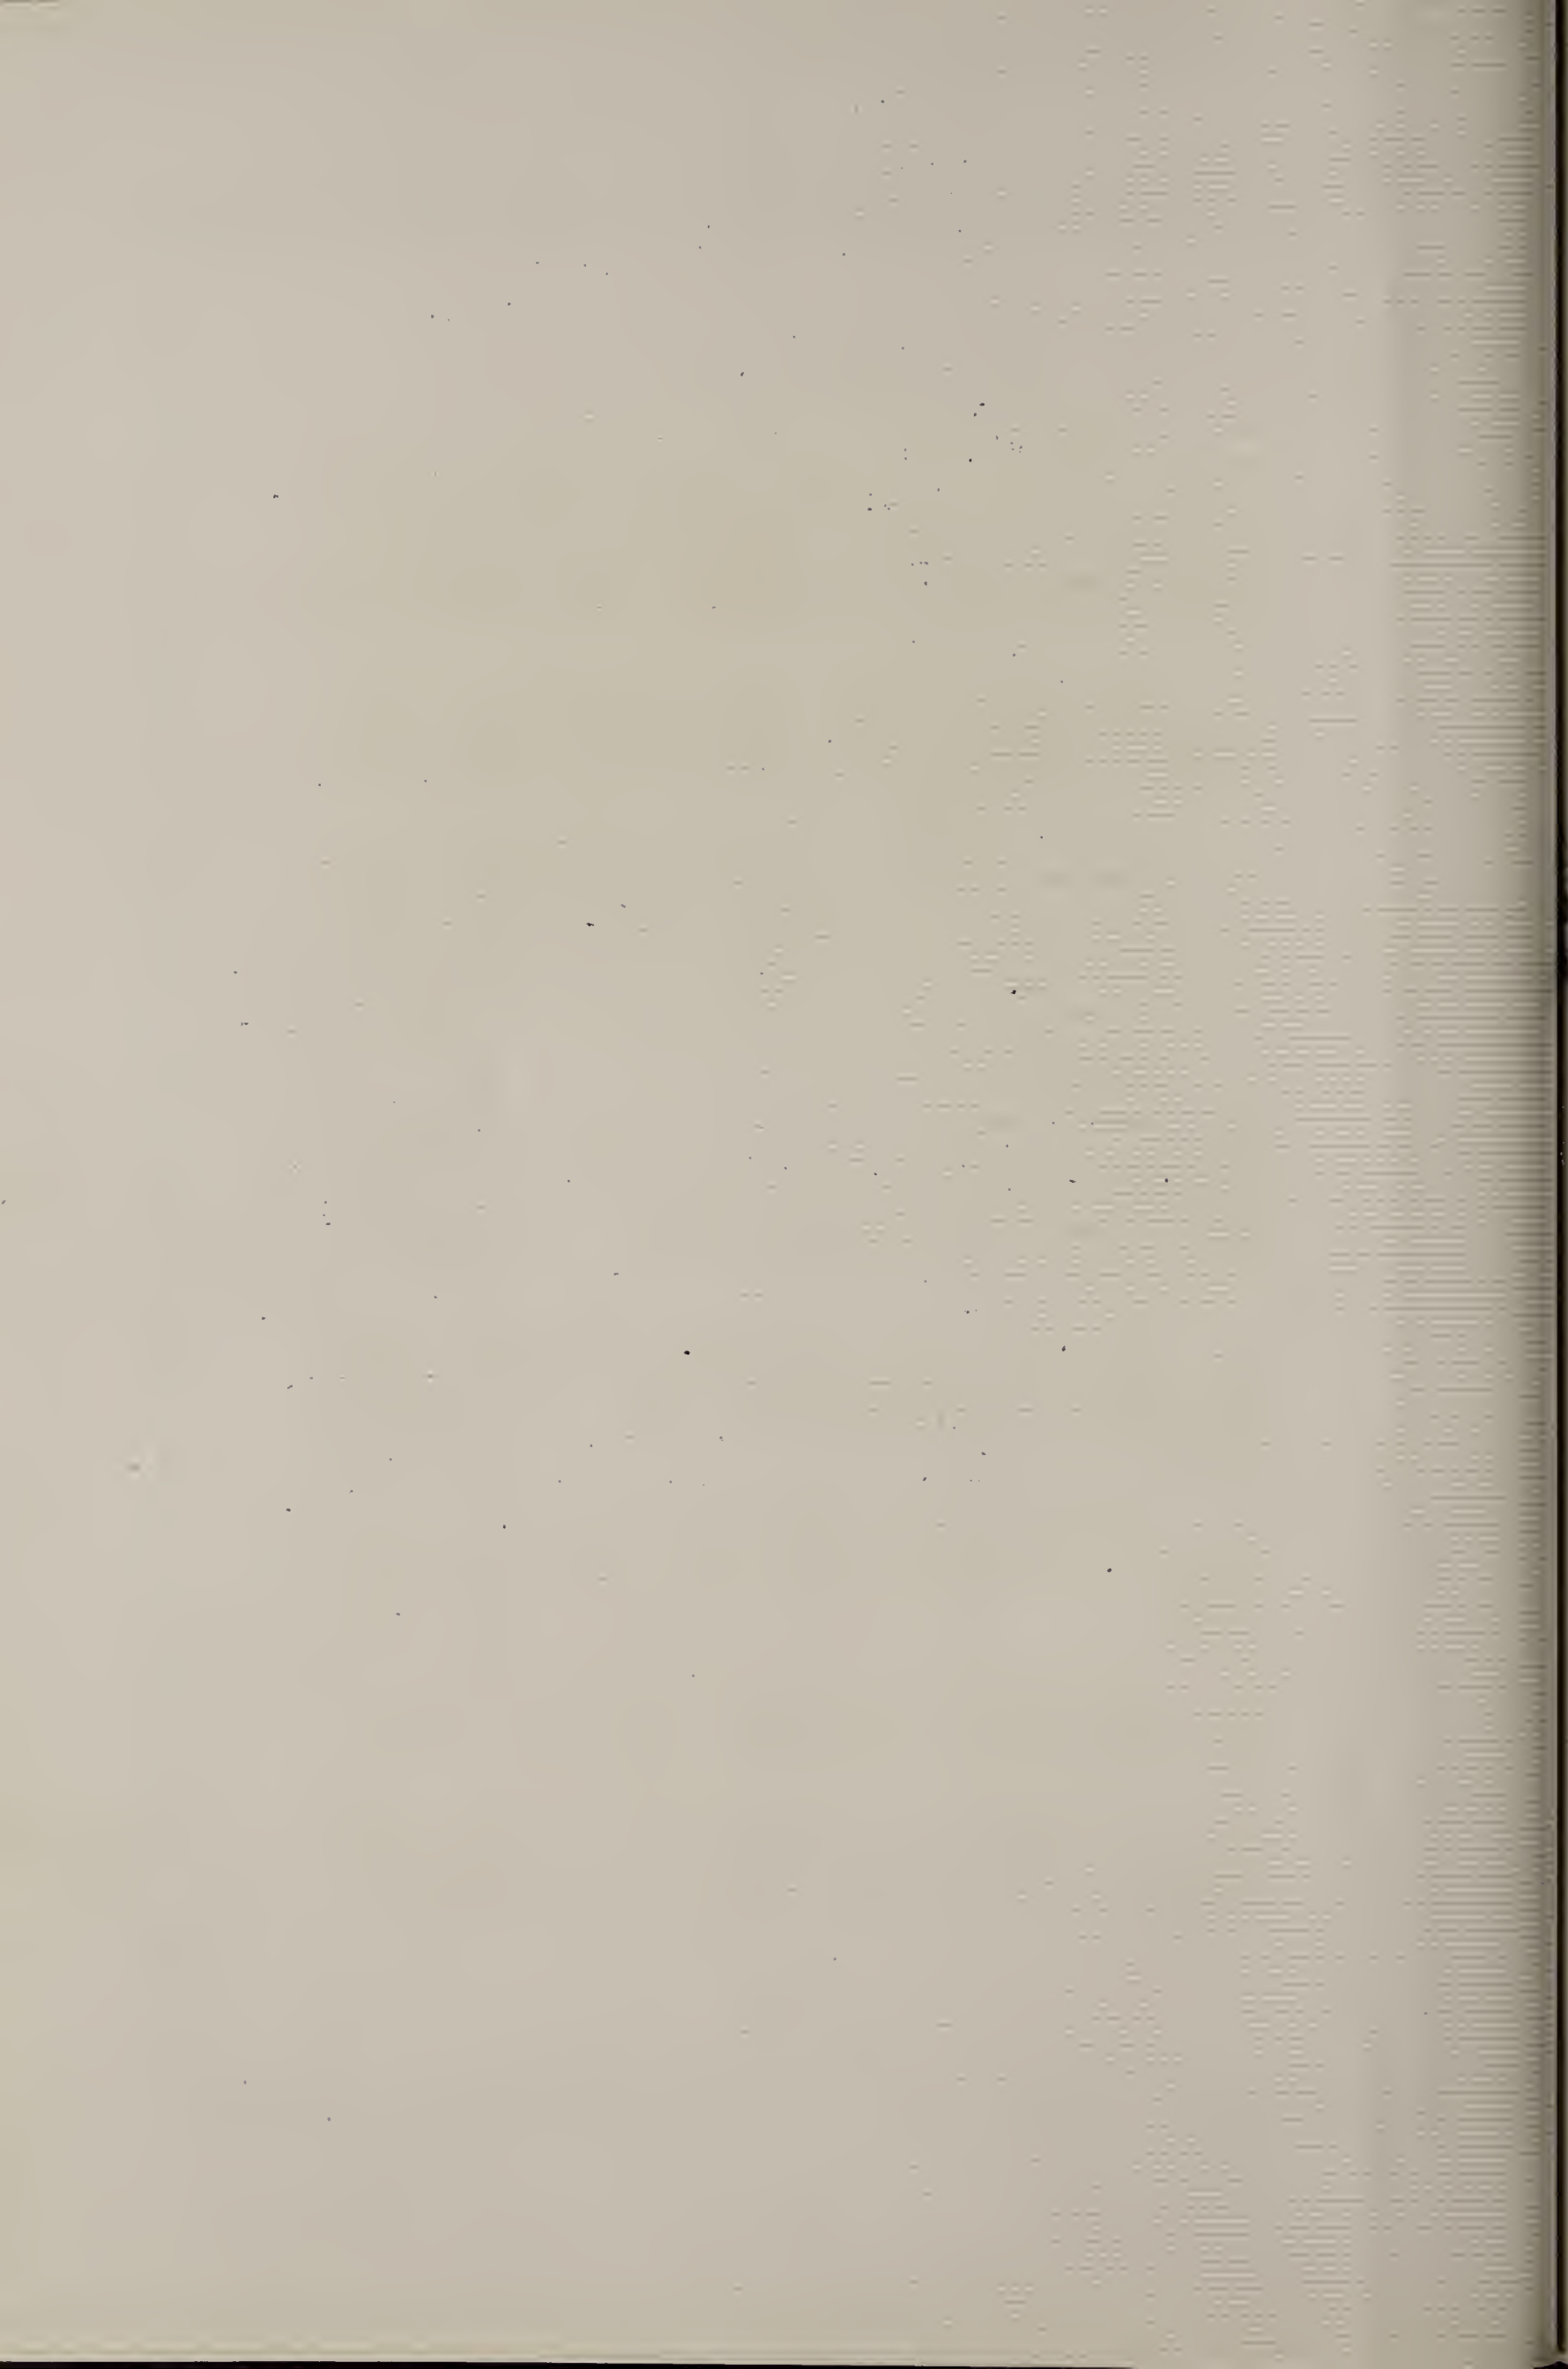

Charlotte Babor, another graduate of '43 cannot be with us since her department is now on the night shift. Charlotte is a reasonable facsimile of "Rosie, the Riveter" and is head of her department at Curtiss-Wright.

We also have the sport's champion, Analee Judge, star pitcher of the world's best girl's softball team, "The Pattonville Dodgers" who won the softball pennant last year.

Jewel McCoy is now light weight champion boxer in the state of Missouri and is known as "Mighty Mike". She is the real McCoy.

Ray Jung is seen quite often in the community. He is the Hyde Park Beer salesman for the neighboring taverns.

Ah, there's Floyd Rogers with a sneer on his face; undoubtedly caused by the presence of so many women. Floyd, who was jilted has organized a Woman Hater's Club.

Norma Moore has just opened a dancing school in the city of Pattonville (6 lessons-6 dollars) and her high school pal, Anna Mae Scheffing is a receptionist at Norma's office in addition to being a reporter on the "Pattonville Gazette."

Helen McNulty, once known as "chubby" has at last achieved her ambition of being thin (weighing only 75 pounds) and has made the Majestic Reduco pills quite famous.

Catherine Dunn, the once quiet and timid student of P.H.S., is heard every evening over this station as Lois Lane in the radio serial "Superman."

Santa Barreca has joined the WAACS and is now one of the first Generals in the Women's Army.

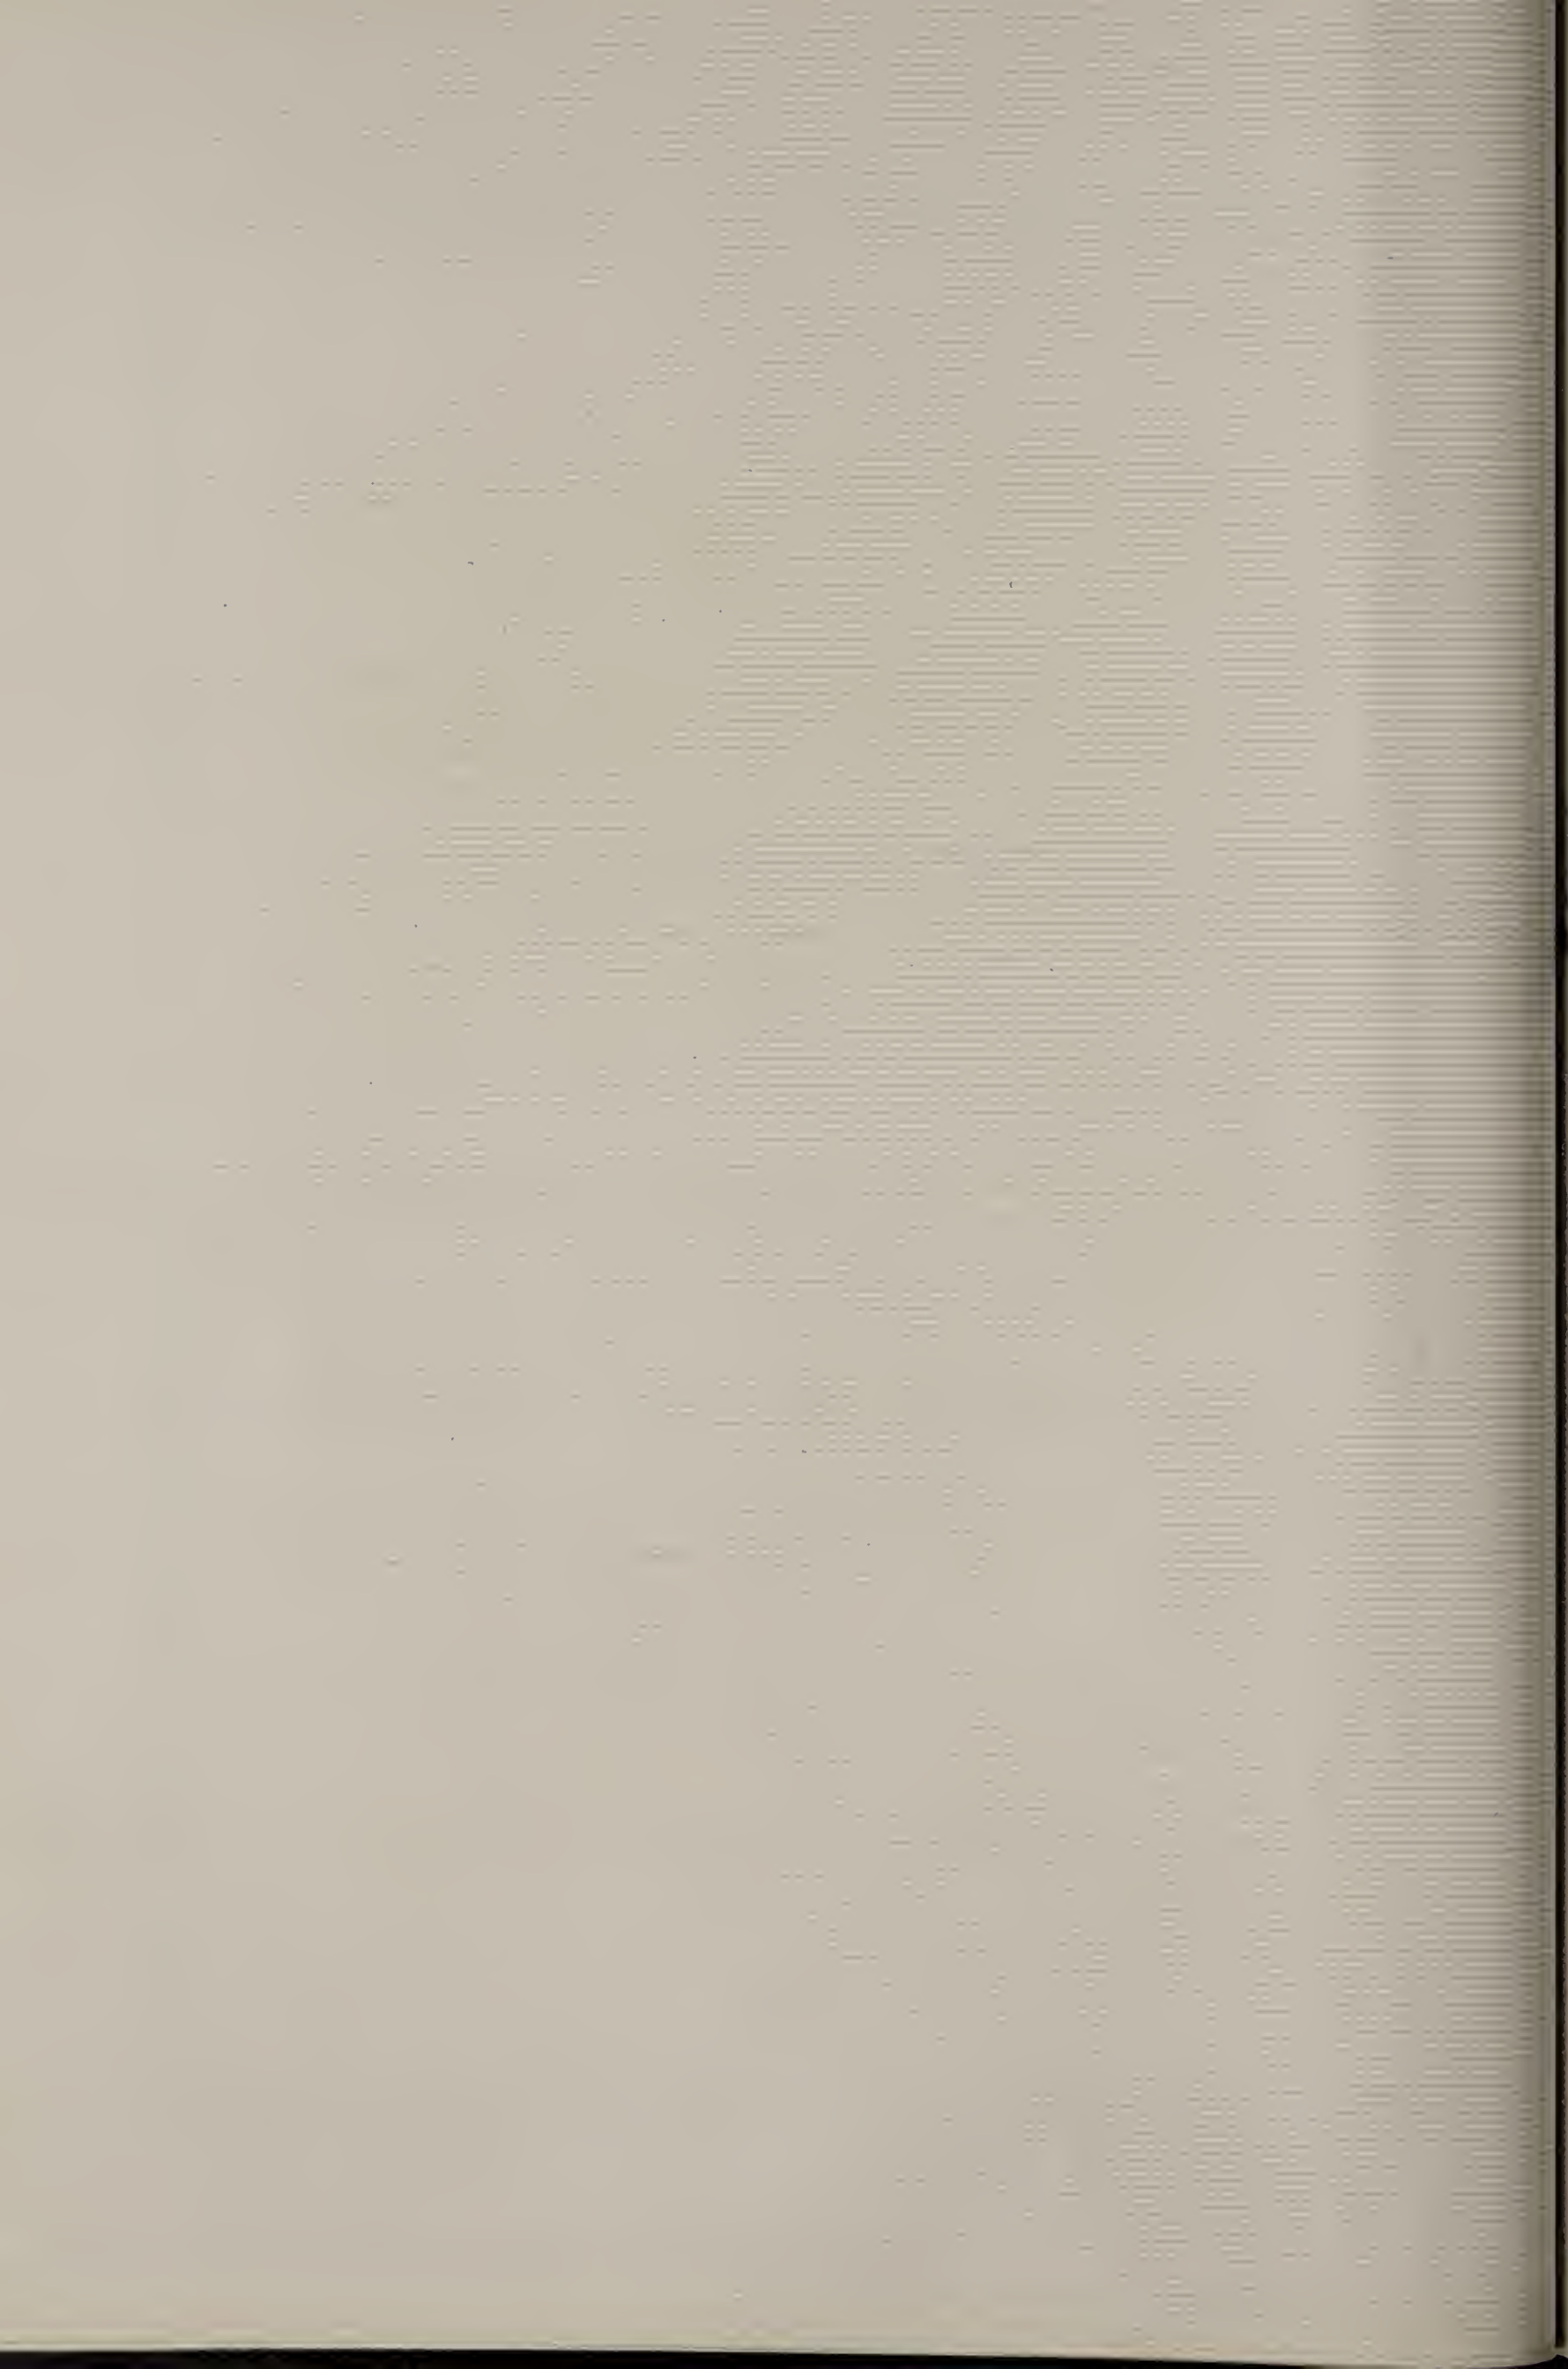

We find Helen Aubuchon and Alvin Keiffer happily married, to each other, of course, since they decided it was high time that the longs and shorts got together.

Janet Mehlen has opened "The Soup Shop" which shows the excellent experience she gained working in the school cafeteria.

Bernadine Prouhet now holds the cup for the world's fastest and best roller skater.

Barney Lepsky has opened a jewelry shop stocking it with the gifts given by his numerous girl friends.

Orphia Golden is editor and typist of the already mentioned "Pattonville Gazette."

And there is the model housewife, Dolores Lannigan, who has given up man-hunting to reside in that little cottage just this side of heaven with her husband and five children.

There's Kathleen McNulty who runs Pattonville's Beauty Salon which has long been famous for its new and glamorizing hair styles. Her slogan is, "Don't give up, I haven't."

"Rancher" McGahey has just come to town on his yearly vacation. Bill now owns and operates Harry Owl Ranch in Ruggerville, a suburb of Pattonville. Incidentally, John Rugger is the mayor of this noteworthy town.

June Hosler seems extremely happy tonight, probably because Santa Claus has at last brought Bill his gun and bucket of water.

We are happy to have Alberta Schmittel in all of her finery. Alberta has been voted the best-dressed woman in Pattonville.

Wayne Jeffrey and Shirley Jane Brewster, having such a great love for their Alma Mater, found it impossible to leave it and may now be found as members of the faculty, Wayne teaching Math., and Shirley Jane Commerce.

Joe Skaggs and Jean Marsden cannot be with us tonight but Pattonville will be honored with their presence next week, since they are billed as the star performers of Pattonville's "Little Theater Guild."

Mary Zanzie is in the crowd with her usual amount of admirers and has been voted the belle of Creve Coeur.

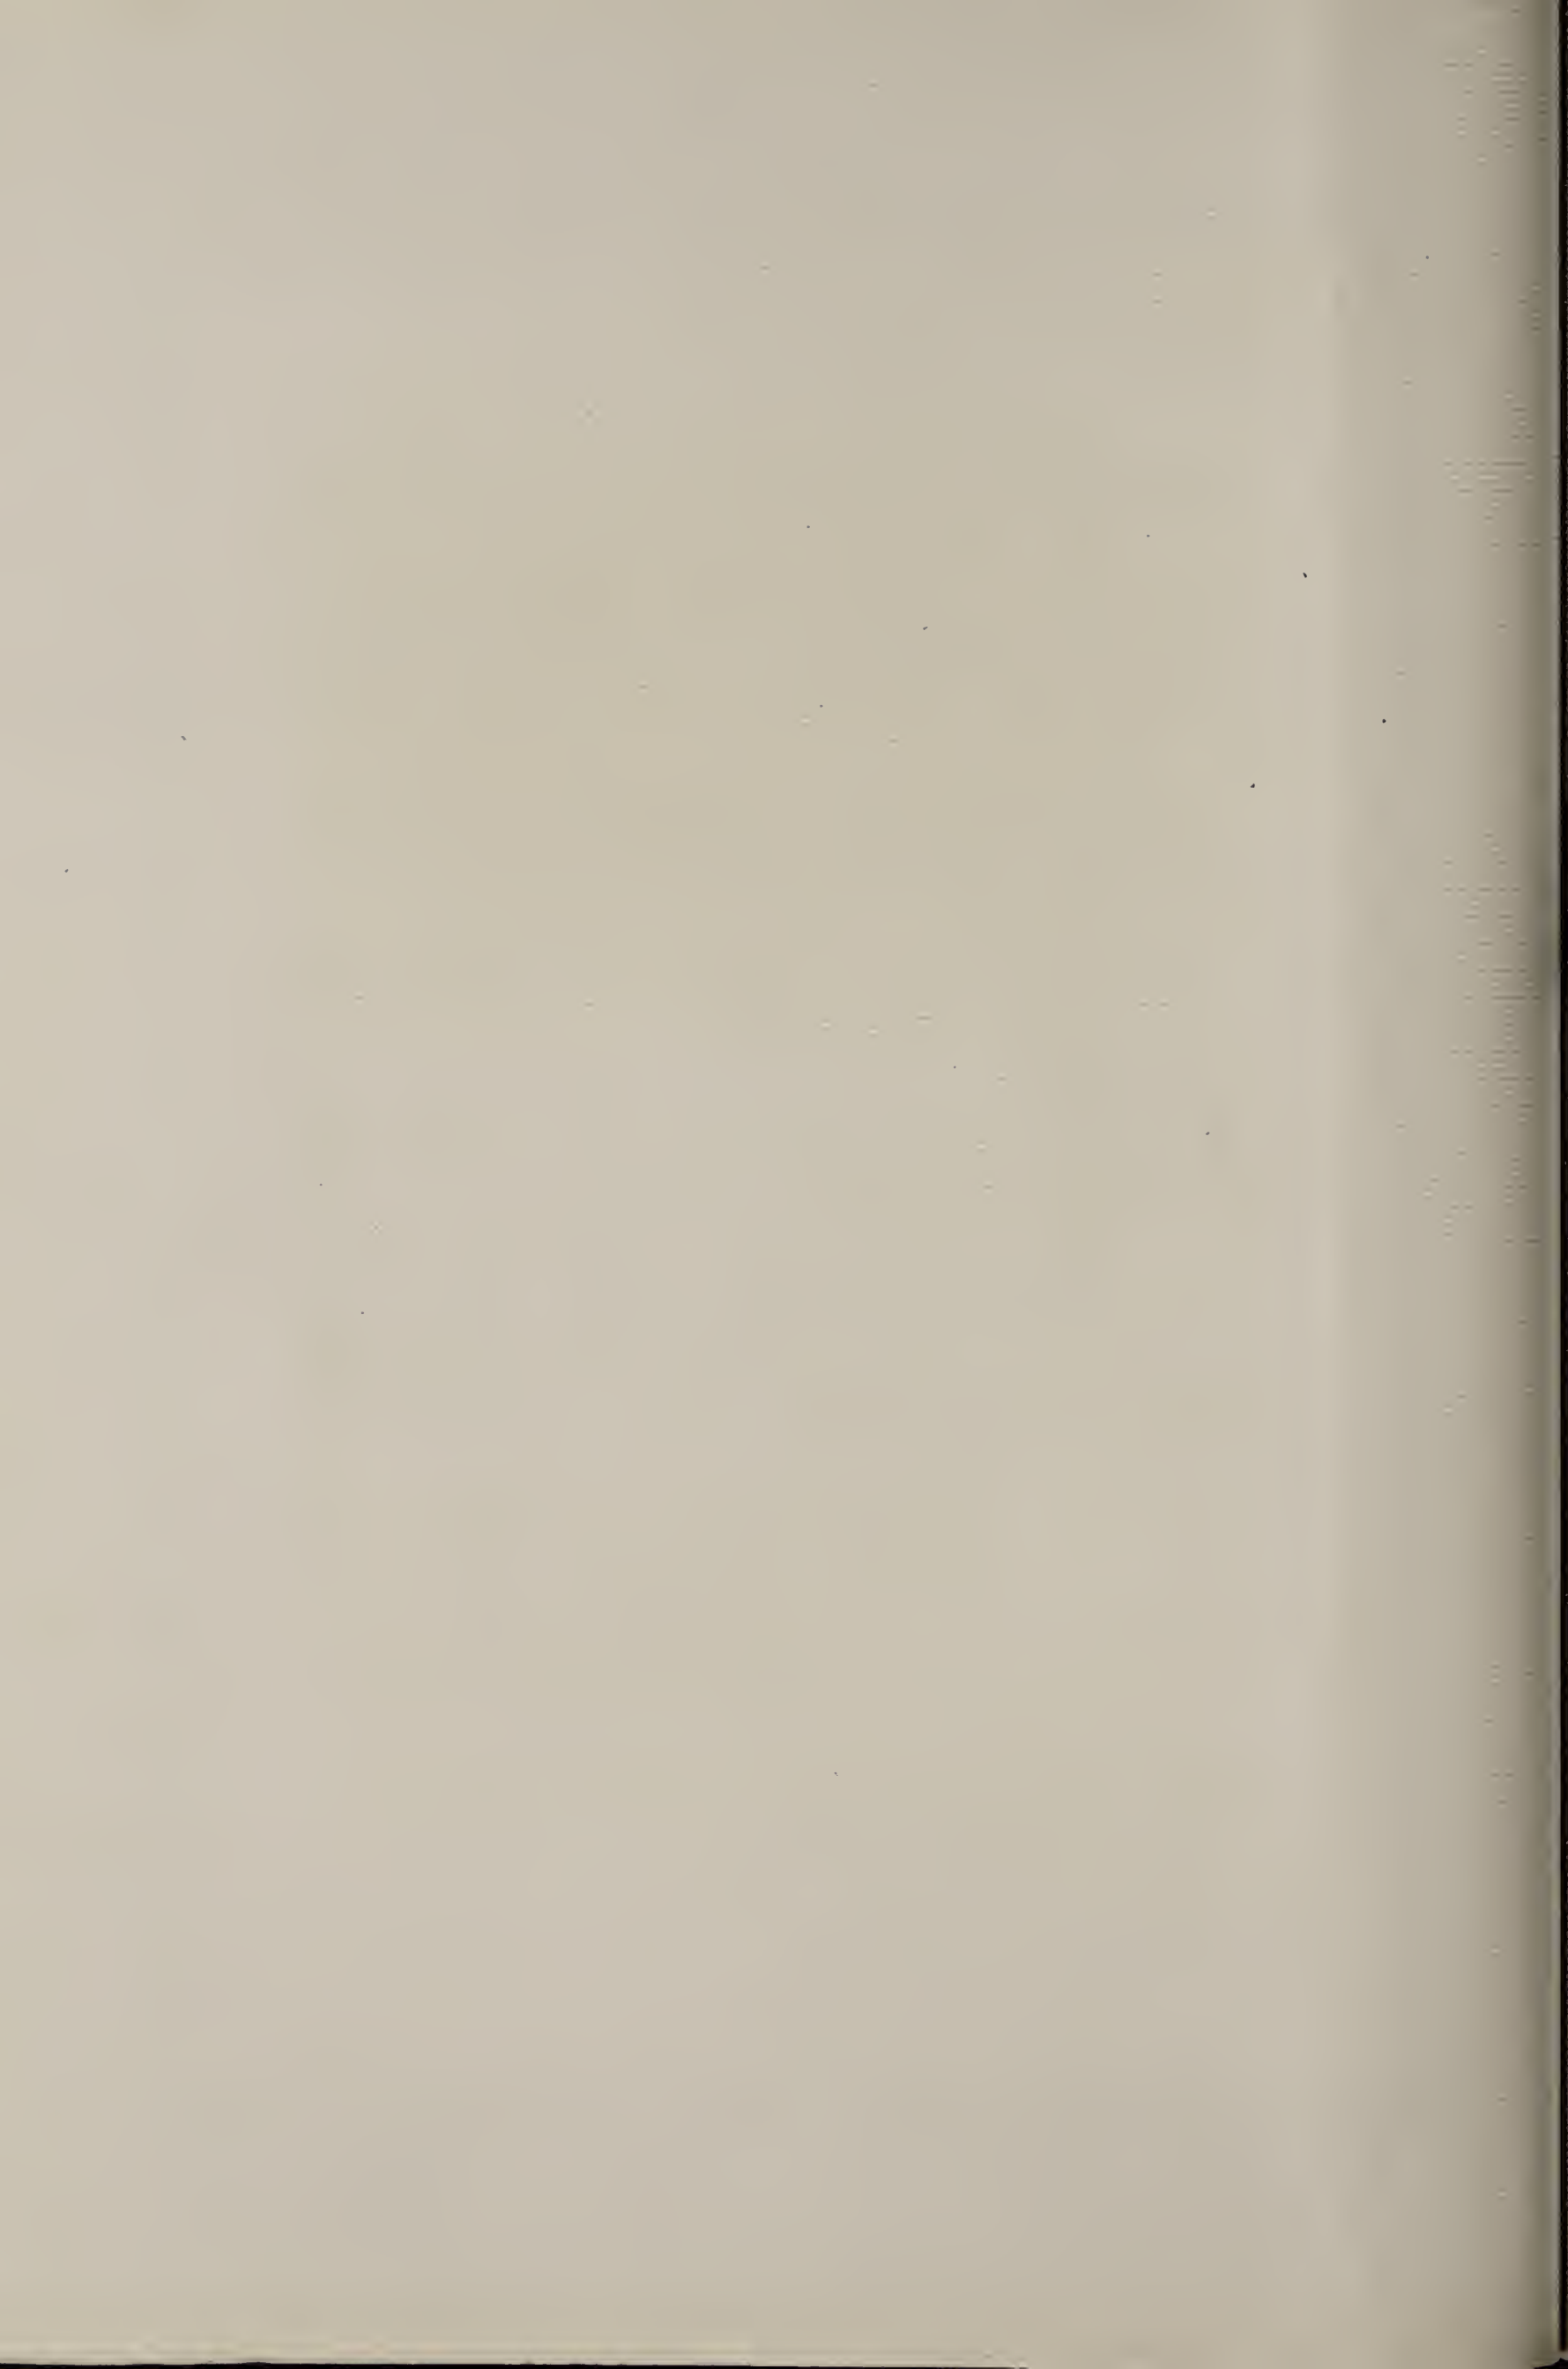

Our own Addie Mae Hudson is now known as "Available Hudson" available at all times for minding babies, chopping wood, playing cupid and other such worthy deeds for a small fee.

Doris Sharp is plenty sharp, appearing on Dr. Sharp's quiz program every Tuesday evening.

Rose Mary Nolte went west in the 1949 gold rush and has not yet returned. (We hope she is prospering.)

And oh, there's Orville Kuhlman, who at the moment is troubled by his romantic life, being engaged to six girls and not knowing which one to choose.

Our time is up for this evening ladies and gentlemen, but we will be with you again next year, same time-same station-bringing you more highlights of that big, little town of Pattonville. Good Night.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of '43, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the Faculty--our hopes that they have another class as up and coming as ours.

To the Freshmen--we will peaceful days with no hammering, no blaring notes of the band and no zooming of airplanes over-head.

To the Sophomores--our sincere wishes that World War II will be over by the time they are Seniors.

To the Juniors--our wishes that they have less misfortune in getting their rings than we did.

Helen Aubuchon--her blonde beauty to Delores Engler and her banjo strumming technique to Don Mueller.

Sandra Barreca--her luck to get to her first hour class just as the bell is giving its last gong, to Elwood Jeffrey, the Ten O'clock Scholar.

Shirley Jane Brewster--her soft, mellow tones and voice to Elroy Witte, and wills Wayne Jeffrey to the Navy Air Corps.

Buddy Burch--his seriousness and great love and ability for "tickling the ivory" to Nadine (Mike) Mueller.

Catherine Dunn--her quietness, shyness and, politeness to the Pattonville Riot, Bonnie Keyes.

Orphia Golden--her Tune Town Weekly Wednesday night visit to Betty Kretchel.

June Hosler--her long and lasting current event reports to any Junior who thinks he can stand up for a half hour.

Mae Hudson--her long Chinese fingernails to Mr. Shawver. (He'll need them since he has those Juniors to claw.)

Wayne Jeffrey--The only Pattonville boy Shorthand writer wills his ability to write shorthand to Ted Shaw and Harold Snead, next year's prospects.

Analee Judge--her long walk to and from school to any couple who thinks the "longest way around is the sweetest way home."

Ray Jung--all his extra credits and that neatly kept locker to Philip Nicolay. (He'll need them.)

Alvin Kieffer--his big, baby blue eyes and long, curly eyelashes to the great woman "wower", Vernon Branneky.

Orville Kuhlman--that pretty De Soto, four whitewall tires and his gas to Clinton Dalhoff. (Lucky, isn't he?)

Delores Lannigan--her drug store job to some girl interested in meeting soldiers and sailors. (Don't rush, girls.)

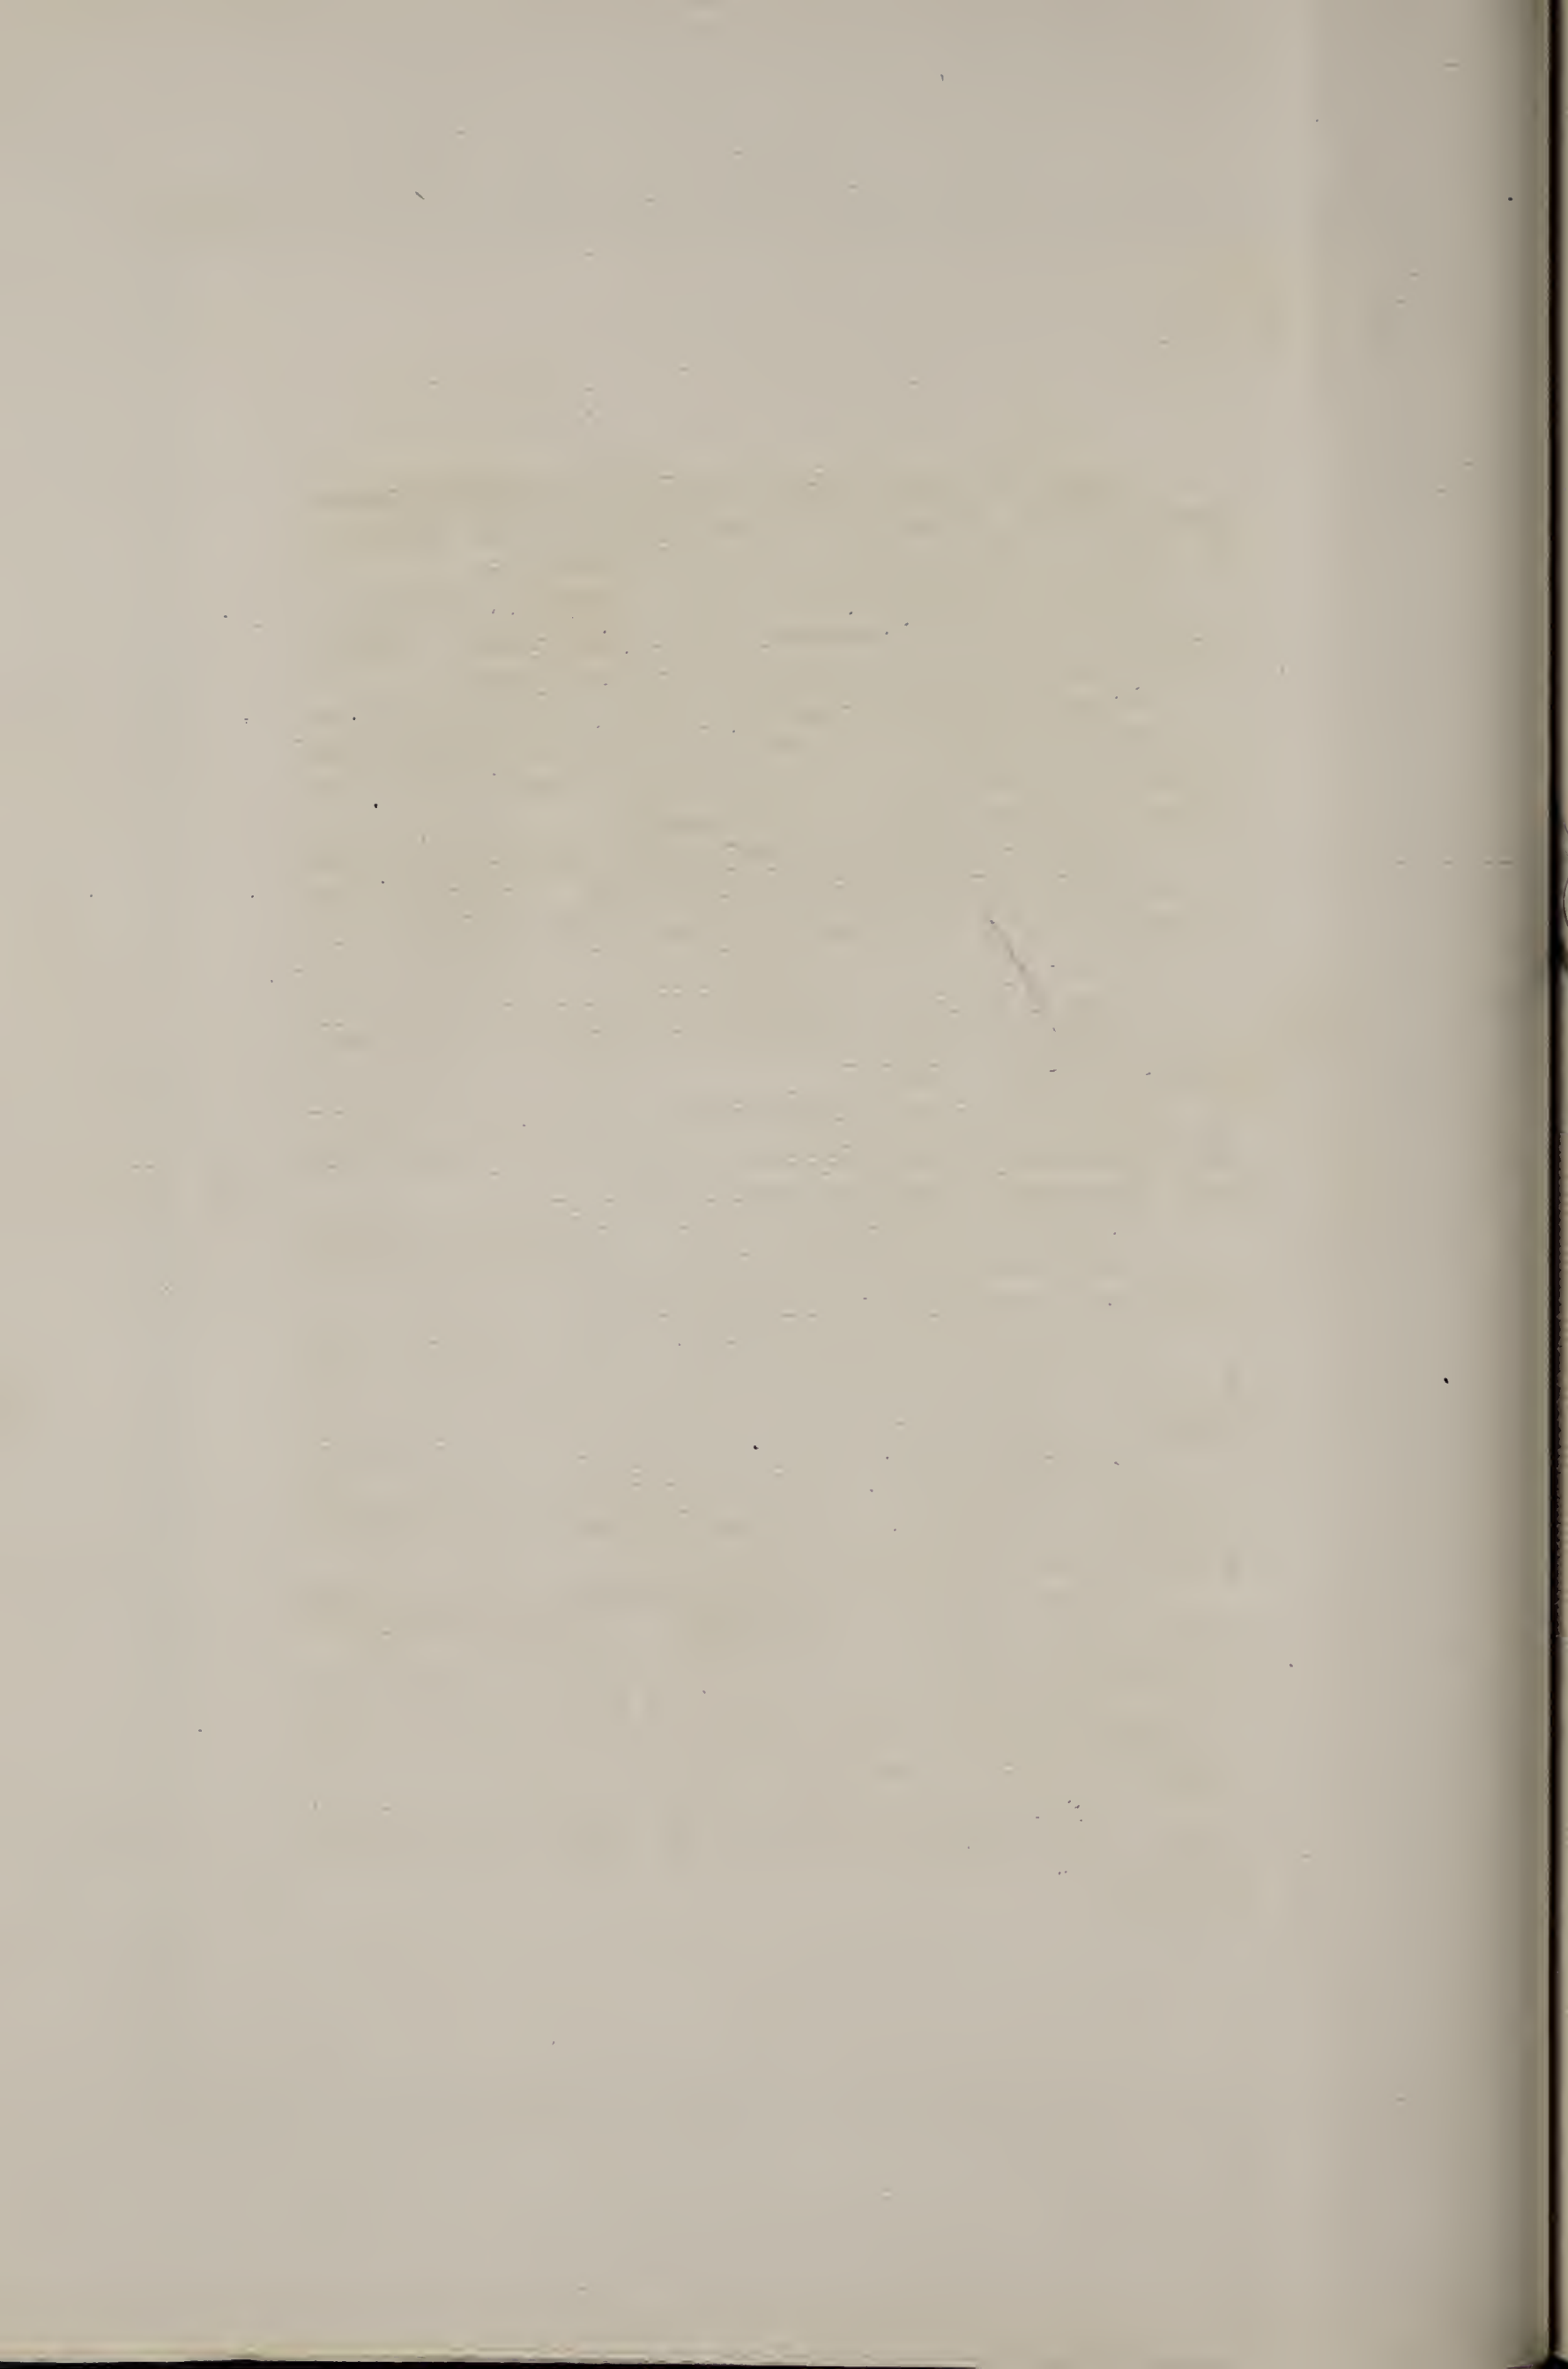

Barney Lepsky--his position as trombone player in our harmonious school band to Rolland Woodcock, who could use his "wind" to better advantages.

Jean Marsden--her technique of "slapping" hamburgers together to any "Wimpy" of Pattonville.

Jewel McCoy--the heavy weight champion of Pattonville wills all her weight to the light weight, Melba Givens.

Bill McGahey--his size 13 cowboy boots (and his feet to go with them) to Buddy Moser.

Helen McNulty--her ability to study at all times, any place, and in all kinds of noise to the two most studious boys, Leonard and Paul.

Kathleen McNulty--the only woman tobacco auctioneer wills her wicked moving tongue to that drawling talker, Robert Walker.

Janet Mehlen--her job of washing milk bottles at noon to anyone good at washing "necks."

Norma Moore--her worn out dancing shoes to Eileen Rugger or any other Ginger Rogers who is in need of an extra pair of shoes.

Rosemary Nolte--her Veronica Lake hair style to Margaret Cooper.

Bernadine Prouhet--her everlasting supply of "pocket-size novels" and magazines to the book-worm, Betty Nixon.

Floyd Rogers--his brain child, the Schola, and Bobbie to anyone capable of taking care of both of them.

John Rugger--his bright yellow sweater and his delapidated, screwless locker to Bob (Mr. Fixit) Deadrick.

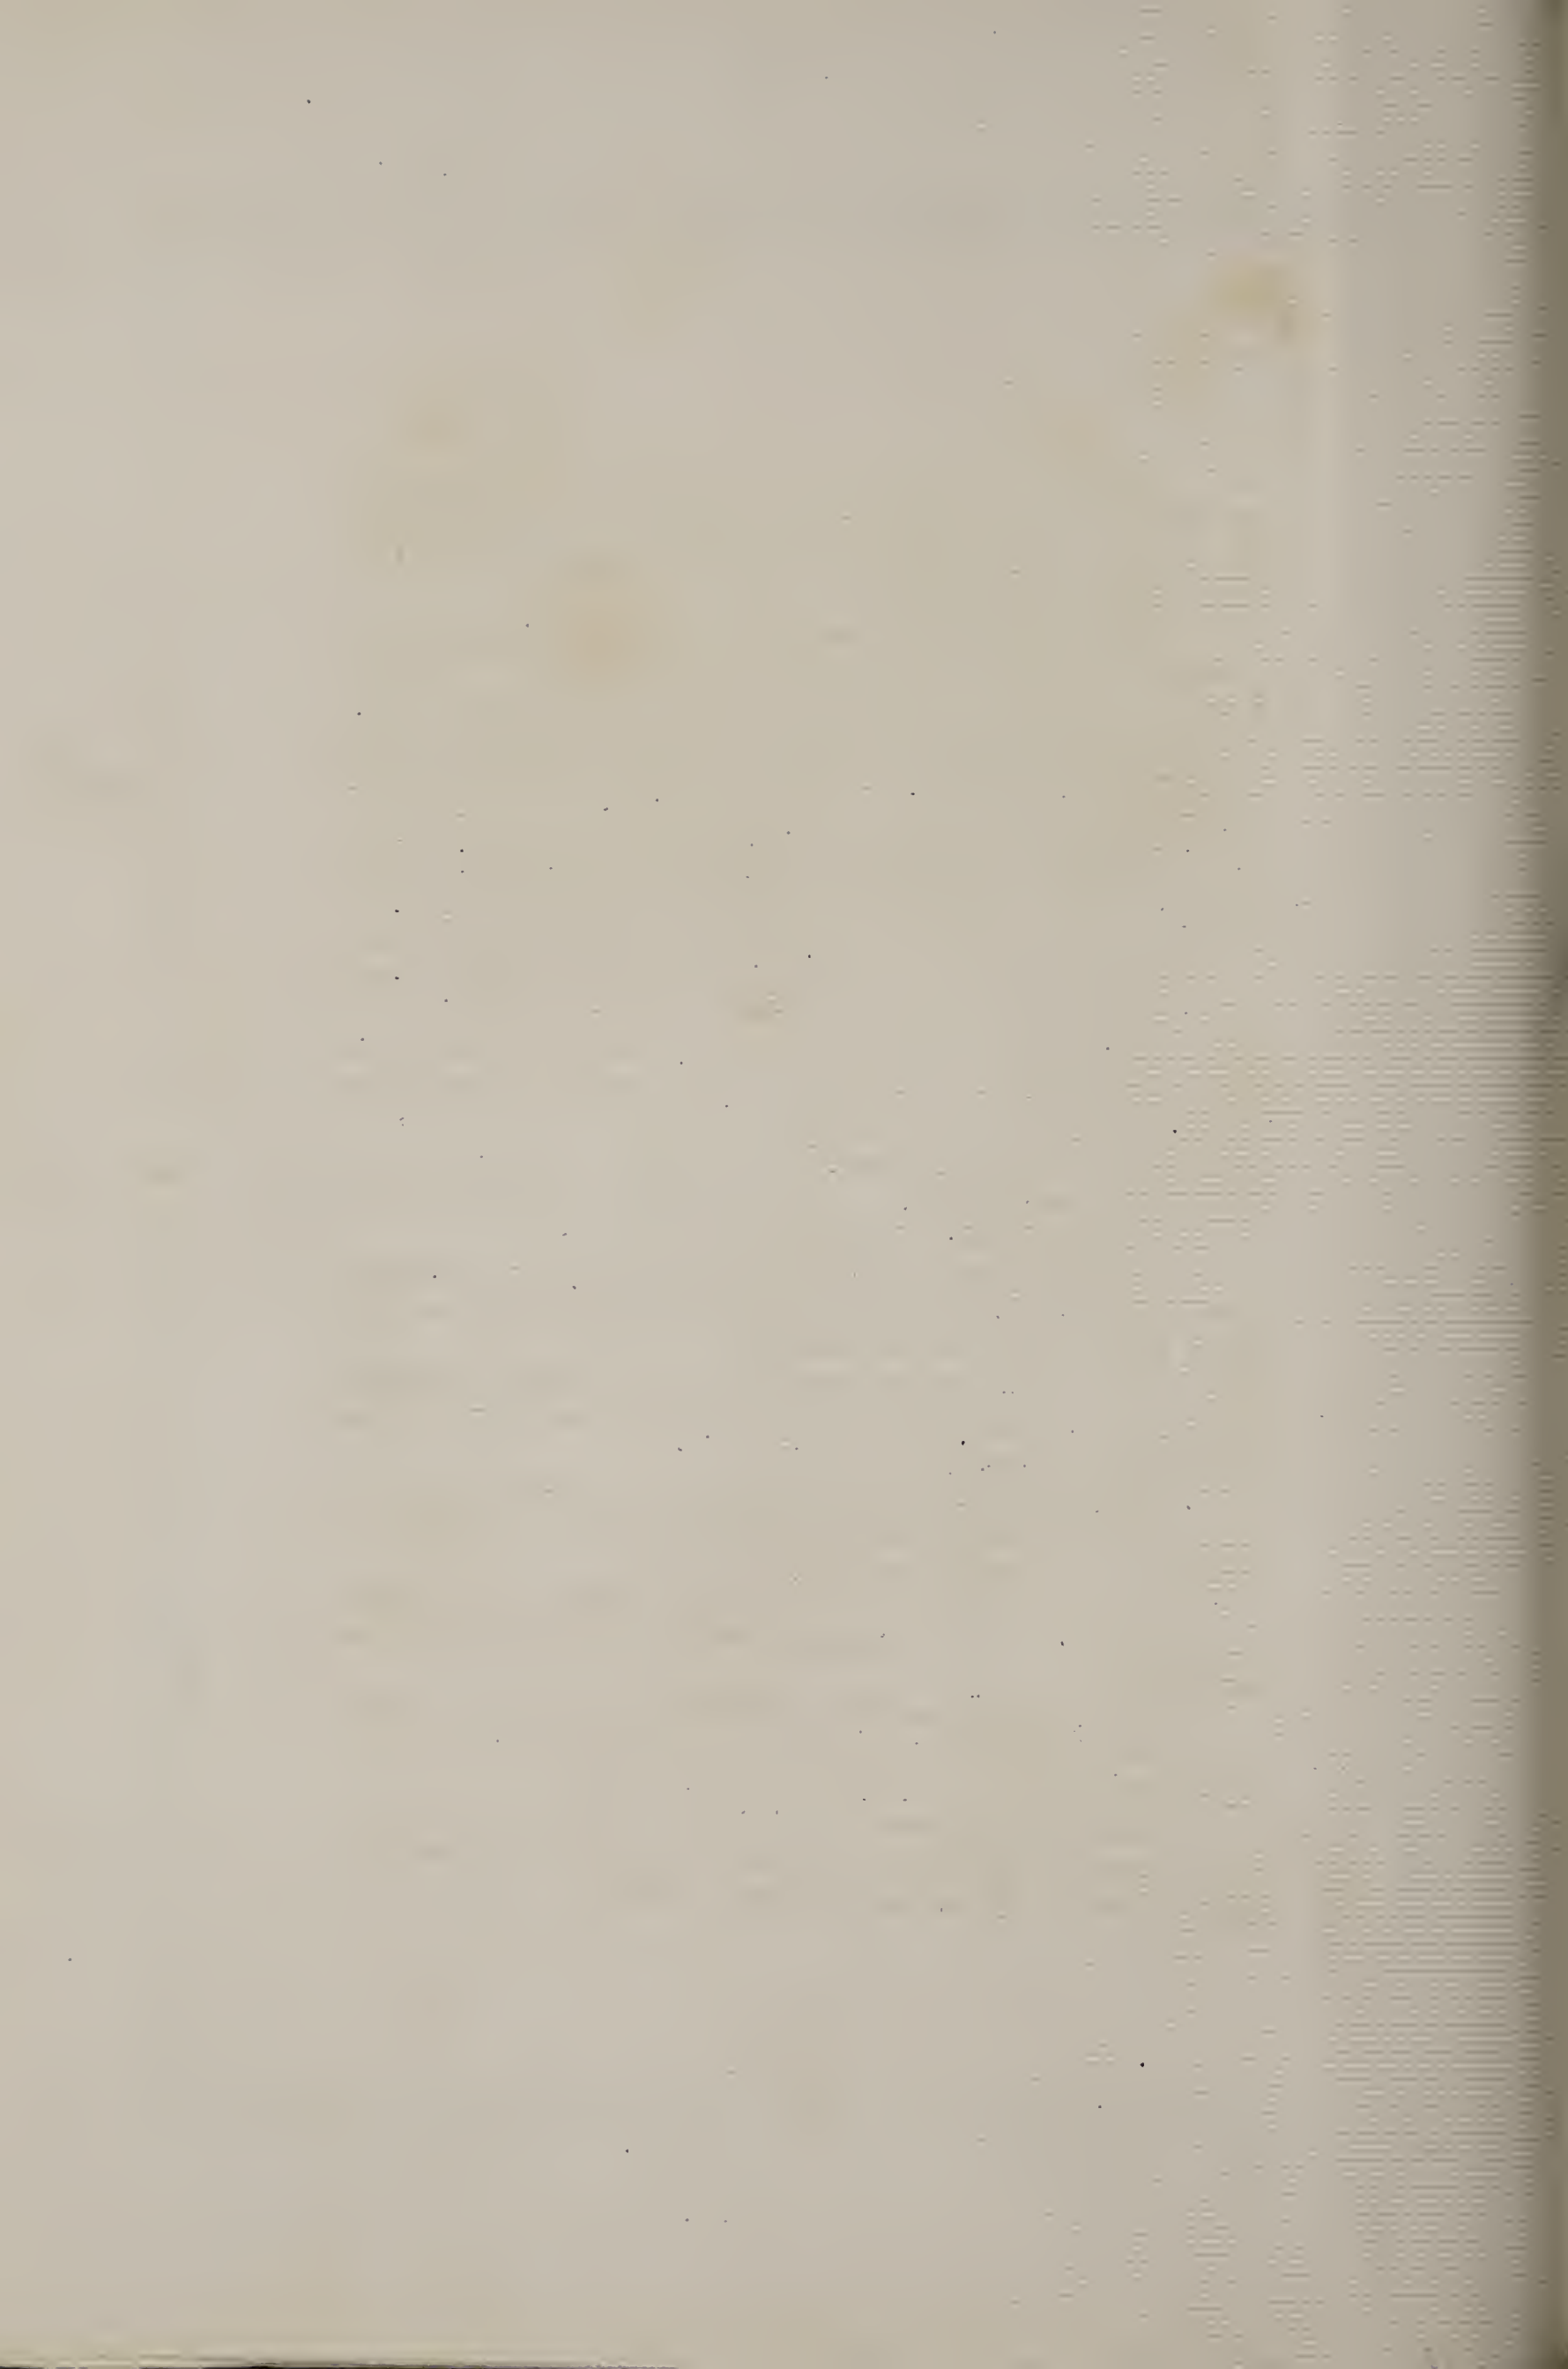

Doris Sharp--her sensible length dresses to that patriotic Freshman, Helen (Save on Material) Back.

Annie Mae Scheffing--her ability to get into all kinds of trouble to anyone capable of getting out of it.

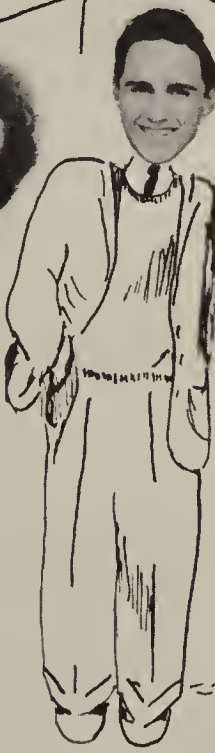

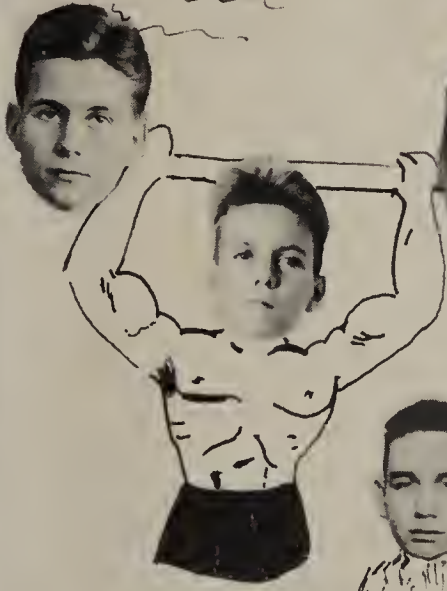

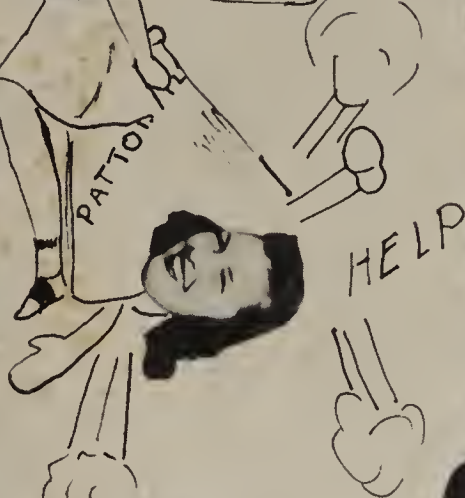

Alberta Schmittel--her looming height to Lorraine Schroeder, who could never grow an inch.

Joe Skaggs--his ambitions to keep down two forts, Pattonville High School and Curtiss Wright, to Paul Langensand.

Mary Zanzie--her last initial and her last seat in every class to Jackie Anderson who always gets the first seat.

Third Row--Alice Piercy, Melba Givens, Betty Cummings, Margaret Viehman, Ellen Moore, Russell Day, Leonard Neideringhaus, Elroy Witte, Iva Mae Bruno, Santa Sirna.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

In 1940 the Freshman student body consisted of eighty pupils; but by the end of the year the size of the class had decreased to sixty two. Since the class was so large, it was divided into two groups--A and B--sponsored by Mr. Tarbet and Miss Myers. The social calendar was filled by two main events, a roller skating party at St. Charles, and a dance given at the high school.

In the school year of 1941 the sophomore student body was composed of 57 pupils. Again due to the large number of students, the class was divided into two groups under the sponsorship of Mr. Tarbet and Miss Lueke. In the middle of the year, Mr. Tarbet was called into military service and Mrs. Reifsteck became our sponsor. Towards the end of the school term the class enjoyed a roller skating party at Kirkwood.

By the year 1942, our class has decreased to 41 students. The sponsors of the '42 class were Mrs. Reifsteck and Miss Adams. The officers elected by the Junior class were as follows:

President--Robert Walker
Vice-Pres.--Carlos Brown
Secretary--Clinton Dalhoff

A dance given on Oct. 2 was a very big success due to the cooperation and unity of the committees. The school was decorated with autumn leaves and bittersweet, the music being furnished by the Melody Kings. Records were played during the intermissions.

We are all looking forward with great pleasure to our Senior year.

SOPHOMORE B

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As Freshmen in 1941-42 we had an enrollment of seventy pupils, but this year as Sophomores we have only 56. Many of the pupils have come from different schools, such as Pattonville, Mt. Pleasant, Creve Coeur, Bonfils and Garrett. Last year we were sponsored by Mr. Shawver and Mr. Baker. This year the A section of our class has been sponsored by Miss Hiatt and the B section in the first semester by Mrs. Holman and by Mrs. Stuckenschneider in the second.

Although many of us were enrolled here last year, some are new. A few of our class have dropped school to go to work.

This year we have had two social activities, which were parties held at the High School from 8 o'clock until eleven. We played various games and danced.

Our class officers for this year are as follows:

Class A President--Lee Gutman
Vice-Pres.--Juanita Bryant
Secretary--Charles Graveman
Treasurer--Floyd Kuhlman

Class B President--Jackie Nessel
Vice-Pres.--Billie Turner
Secretary--Pat Brouster
Treasurer--Don Mueller

The class colors for group A are red and white and the flower is the red rose, for group B, blue and gold and the flower--Gardenia.

FRESHMEN

FRESHMEN A

Second Row--Otto Edmond, Avonelle Watkins, Norma Oswalt, Bonnie Keyes, Nancy Marsden, Juanita Mansfield, Erma Jean Judge, Delores Engler, Arleen Schnaath.

Third Row--Mr. Baker, Isabel Schroeder, Julia Vasquez, Joe Sacco, Charles Mandeville, Gerald Meyers, Marvin Seibel, Arnold Graveman, Bob Mulcahy.

FRESHMEN B

First Row--Alex Reid, Eileen Rugger, Genevieve Babor, Cecelia Witte, Dorothy Metzger, Marjorie Salzwiedel, Dorothy Leutzinger, Mrs. Kaufman.

Second Row--Ruth Himmelsbach, Frances Essen, Shirley Jones, Jean Doville, Marthe Robards, Pauline Erard.

Third Row--Madonna Jeffrey, Helen Back, Earl Butler, Charles Skelton, Jerry Myers, Joe Bewig, Rose Marie Skelton.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of a solution of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters  $\alpha$  and  $\beta$ . It is shown that the system has a solution if and only if the condition  $\alpha + \beta = 1$  is satisfied. In this case the solution is unique and is given by the formula where  $x_0$  and  $x_1$  are the solutions of the system of equations (1) for  $\alpha = 1$  and  $\beta = 0$  and for  $\alpha = 0$  and  $\beta = 1$  respectively.

2. In the second part of the paper the problem of the stability of the solution of the system of equations (1) is considered. It is shown that the solution is stable if and only if the condition  $\alpha + \beta = 1$  is satisfied. In this case the solution is stable in the sense of Lyapunov.

3. In the third part of the paper the problem of the asymptotic stability of the solution of the system of equations (1) is considered. It is shown that the solution is asymptotically stable if and only if the condition  $\alpha + \beta = 1$  is satisfied. In this case the solution is asymptotically stable in the sense of Lyapunov.

FRESHMEN CLASS HISTORY

On September 7, 1942, there were many carefree persons who went back to the routine life of school days, after a long, pleasant, summer vacation.

It didn't take the Freshmen of 1942 as long to get right in step with their school program and keep pace with it as it has the Freshmen of previous years. In fact, some were not as guilty of getting lost in the halls of dear old P.H.S. as were some of the upper-classmen.

Of all the classes this year, the Freshmen was the largest, as it has been for sometime. Because of this large number, fifty-six, the class was divided into two groups, known as the "A" and "B" groups. All of the class meetings were successful, and a great deal of credit goes to Mrs. Kaufman and Mr. Baker, who were the class sponsors. Each group had its officers and they were as follows:

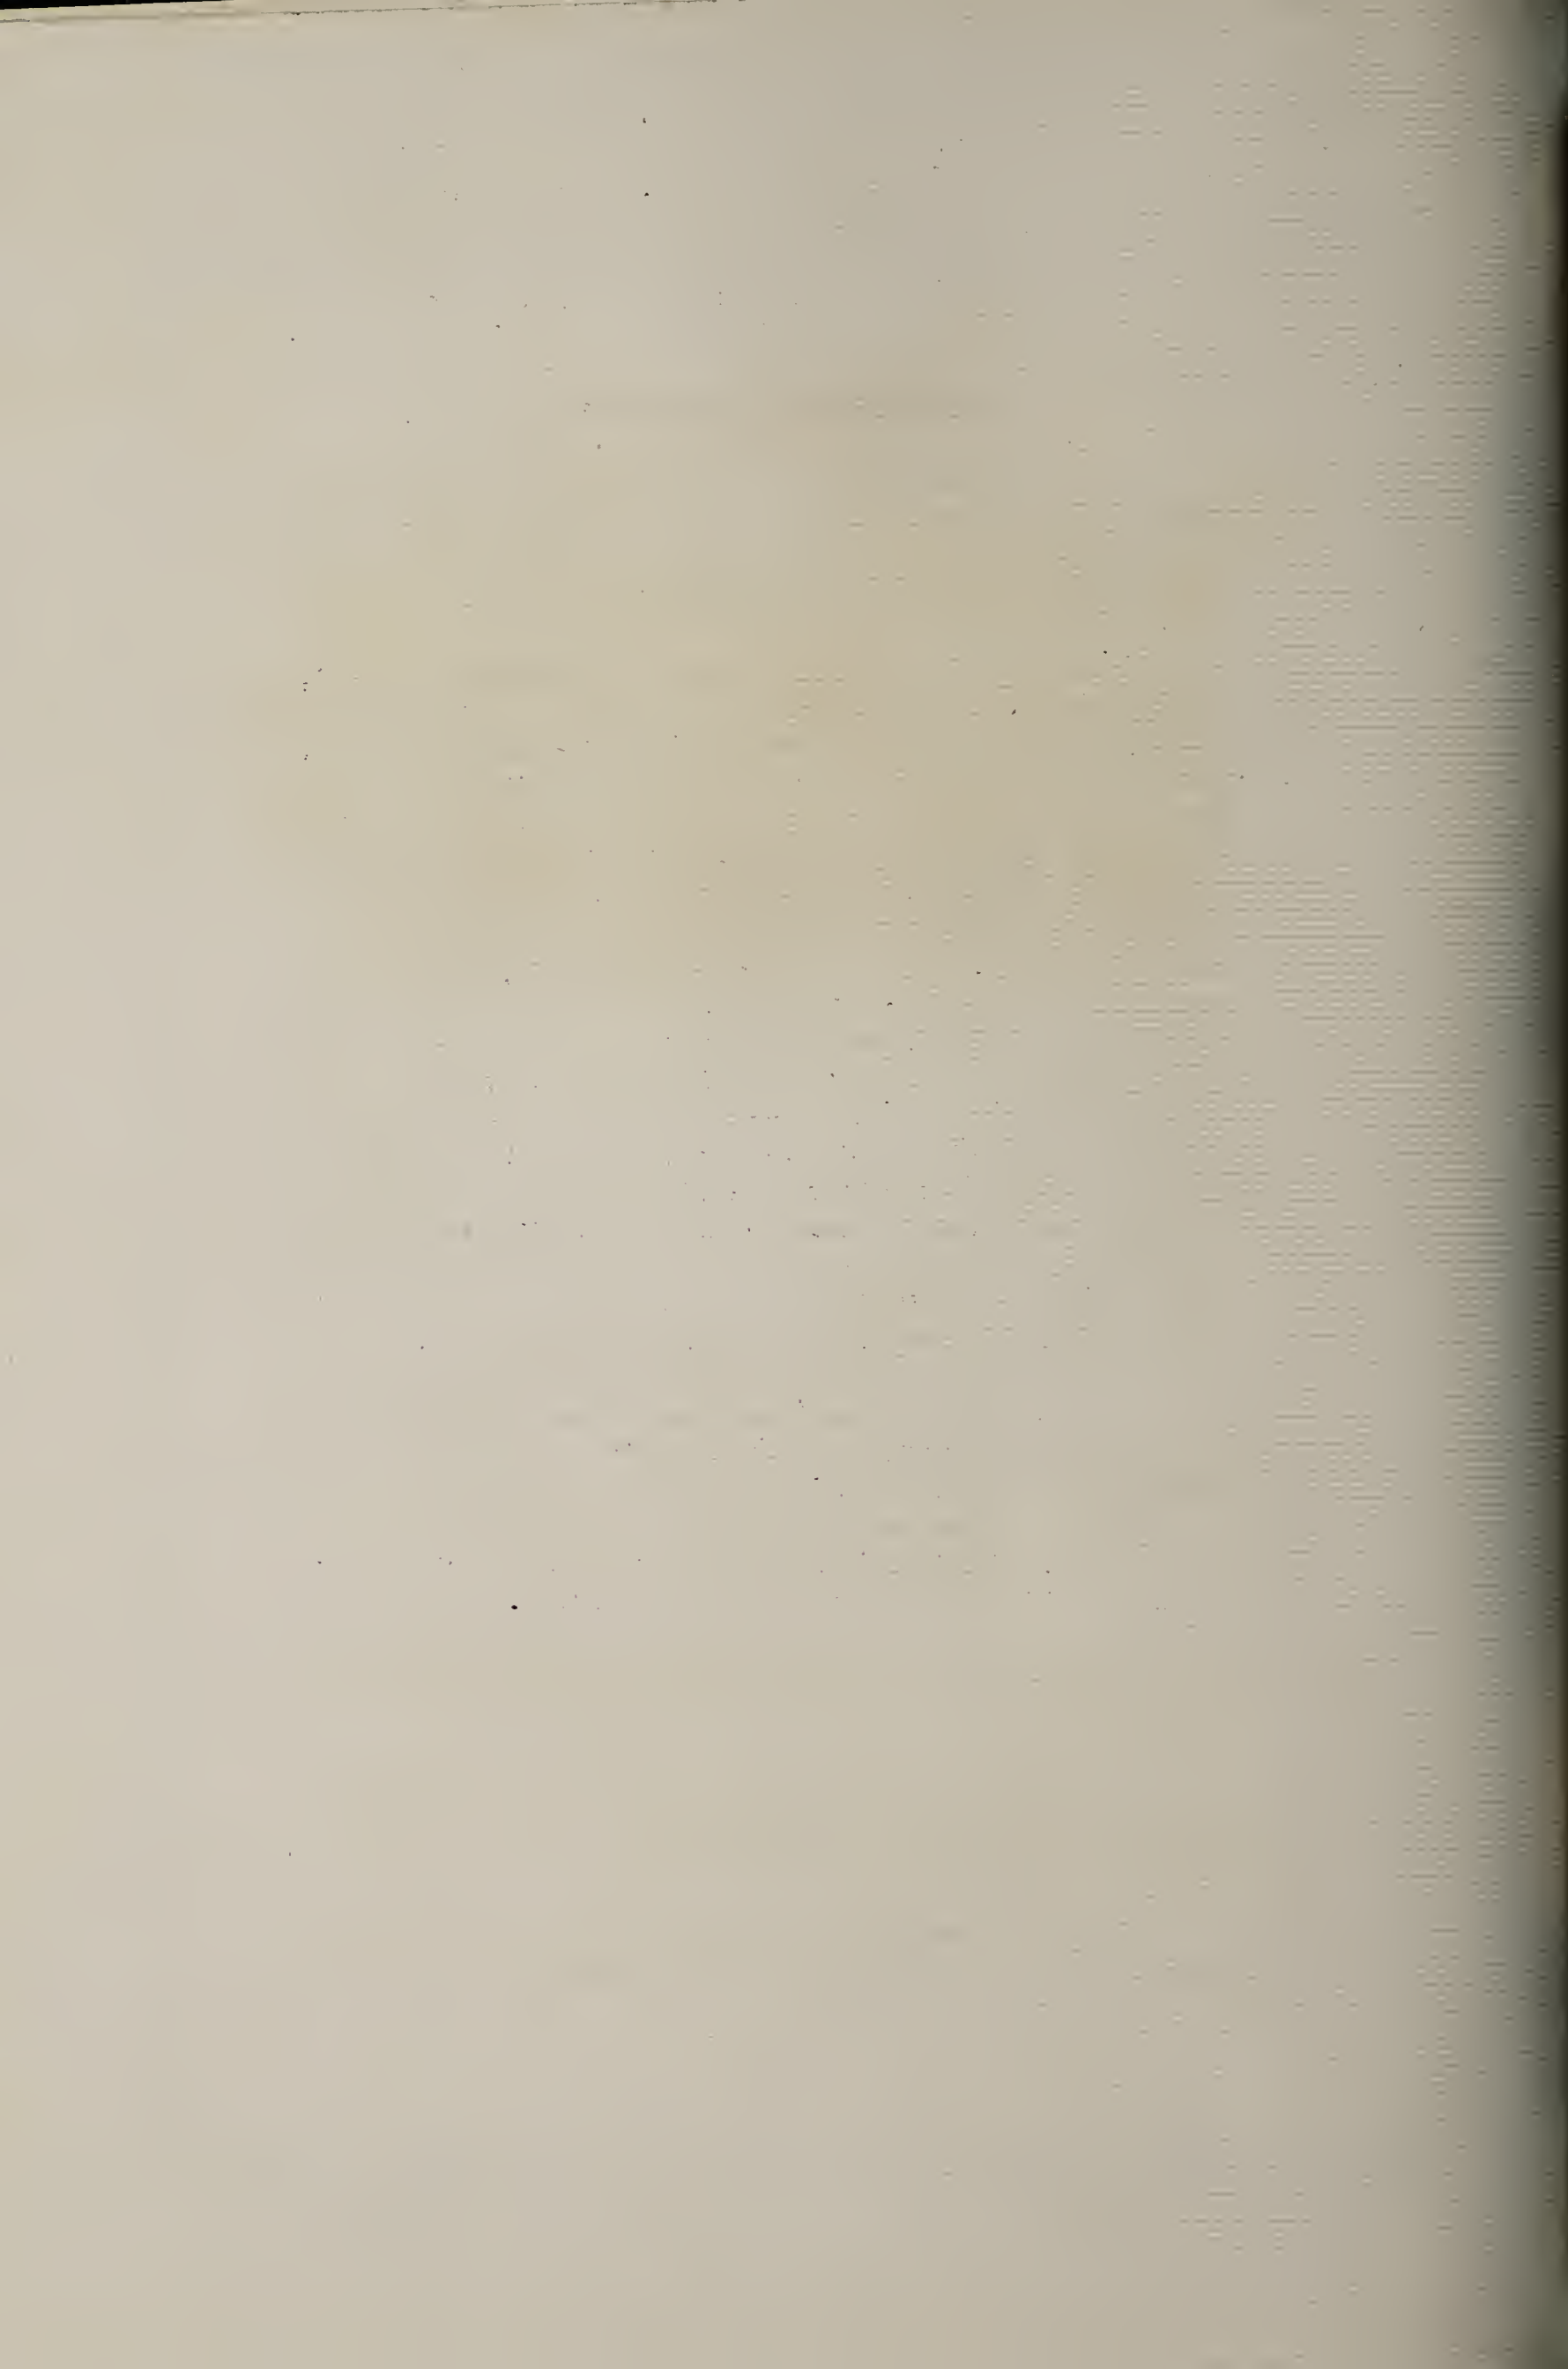

Group "A"	President--Bob Mulcahy
	Vice-Pres.--Delores Engler
	Secretary--Erma Jean Judge
	Treasurer--Albert Moser
Group "B"	President--Genevieve Babor
	Vice-Pres.--Earl Butler
	Secretary--Joe Bewig
	Treasurer--Eileen Rugger

All of the above officers proved themselves to be efficient and competent.

In all the activities of the school, during the year, The Freshmen were "right in there pitching."

We are now looking forward to our Sophomore year with great enthusiasm.

ACTIVITIES

GLEE CLUBS

Composed of forty-six members, the Boys' Glee Club performed once at Assembly, entertaining their audience with "Climbing Up the Mountain." Their year was spent in singing a variety of songs.

The Girls' Glee Club, too, has sung a variety of songs, among which are "Three Little Maids", "Green Cathedral", "The Desert Song", "Hear My Cry, Oh God", "On Wings of Song", and "To A Wild Rose". A few of these have been sung on Assembly programs.

CHORUS

Again the largest organization of the school, the Chorus was composed of one hundred thirty eight boys and girls. They learned "By the Bend of the River" and "Hear My Prayer, O Lord" under Miss Parker's direction. Other songs were practiced and a few of the older songs were revived.

BAND

The Pattonville High School Band in the past year has been under the direction of Miss Parker. During this year, there have been twelve members in the band. The band consists of a number of different kind of instruments. Some of the instruments played are the cymbals, clarinet, trumpet, snare drum, bass drum, alto horn, tuba, and trombone. The band has not made any public appearances during the past year. Many different types of music have been played. Since marches seem to be the favorite type of music, they are played very frequently. The band assembles twice a week for practice.

First Row--Warren Hecht, Marvin Stratmann, Paul Kronsberg, Margarett Cooper, Elwood Jeffrey.

BOYS' DOUBLE QUARTET

This group, too, has been sponsored by Miss Parker and has made few public appearances. Their favorite numbers were "Climbing Up The Mountain Children," "Joy Of The Country Road", and "Just Singing A Song."

GIRLS' DOUBLE TRIO

Front Row--Eileen Rugger, Madonna Jeffrey,
Jewel McCoy.
Back Row--Kathleen McNulty, Ellen Moore,
Rosemary Nolte.

The girls' double trio has this year been under the sponsorship of Miss Parker but due to a late start, not many public appearances were made. Some of the songs sung were "Hear My Cry, O God," "Green Cathedral," "Gypsy Love Song", and "To A Wild Rose."

ECHO STAFF

Second Row--Helen McNulty, Adv. Mgr.; Jewel McCoy, Prod. Mgr.; Doris Sharp, Doris Hollenberg, Ass't. Bus. Mgr.; Lorraine Schroeder, Prod. Ass't.; Jackie Anderson, Prod. Ass't.; Anna Mae Scheffing, Art Editor; June Hosler, Prod. Ass't.; Melba Givens.

Third Row--John Rugger, Ass't. Sports Editor; Alvin Kieffer, Sports Editor; Vernon Branneky, Prod. Ass't.; Floyd Rogers, Ass't. Prod.; Wayne Jeffrey, Adv. Mgr.; Rolland Woodcock, Ass't. Adv. Mgr.; Buddy Burch.

This year the production of our annual, "The Echo", has been under the sponsorship of Miss Newcomer. By reason of the larger number of members on our staff, we have obtained a great deal of advertising and have also completed ninety-five copies of our book. We take this opportunity to thank Buddy Burch, Doris Sharp, and Melba Givens for their help in the production of our book.

SCHOLA

This year the Schola staff has been sponsored by Miss Kaufman. All of our publications were successful and in addition, we published one EXTRA. In parting, we wish success to all future Schola members.

HOBBY CLUB

The members of Mr. Baker's Hobby Club chose their own projects. These included whittling and carving, model construction, the making of archery equipment, and home craft work.

The year was as profitable as it was enjoyable, because the boys learned to spend their leisure time following the course of hobbies.

First Row--Richard Metzger, Mr. Baker, Bob Deadrick, Joe Bewig.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club held its meetings every Tuesday afternoon from 3:15 to 3:45, or second Activity Period. Our sponsor was Mrs. Kaufman, who directed our short one-act play and our club activities.

Pantomines, skits, and short plays were enacted in the club, and readings and speeches were given. We also read plays and dramatic scenes from outstanding, Shakespearean plays.

First Row--Jewel McCoy, Nadine Mueller, Norma Moore, Mrs. Kaufman.
